

The Carbiner

"For sport and for good fellowship"

The August Edition - Number 10 for 2017 – 26 July

News in this Edition –Singapore –HK- ACT-London The Carbine Club of Singapore

The recent Carbine Club of Singapore Derby lunch was really one for the racing purists. Kevin Naughton made a supernatural entrance through clouds of smoke to commence proceedings before handing over to Sky Channel anchor Greg Radley who entertained guests with some outstanding racing trivia, stories and impersonations. The Hyatt again excelled with their usual fine food and Penfolds came to the party with some top notch booze.

As a special treat Foxy Robinson bought 30 kilograms of Pearl Meat direct from one of Nick Paspaley's trawlers and Adam D'Sylva from Coda and Tonka restaurants was on hand to fire the wok up and deliver a knock out dish. Not to be outdone, Chef Lucas complemented the seafood with a slow-cooked full Shin of Beef that melted in the mouth. Kevin had to call for order at one stage as some of the hungrier lads up the back started fighting for the bone.

After lunch Henry Plumptre delivered an amazingly frank and robust 45 minutes of pure theatre. The room was silent and appreciative as Henry told anecdote after anecdote in the way only he can. As dessert was served two old stagers took to the stage where Greg Radley was at his most comfortable interviewing Laurie Laxon and Lee Freedman as they discussed their respective successes including triumphs in the Melbourne

Cup which just happened to be in the room courtesy of the VRC and generous Club sponsor Tony Ryan. The Cup took centre stage complete with 8 of the most fearsome security guards ever seen at the Hyatt.

The Club was happy to welcome guests Neil Wilson and Joe McGrath from the VRC, Mark Worwood from Perth Racing; and High Commissioner Bruce Gosper who attended his first lunch as Patron of the Club in Singapore.

The Carbine Club of Hong Kong

On July 9th 2017 The Carbine Club of Hong Kong was pleased to present a cheque for HK$133,214.00 to the Riding for the Disabled Association, being the funds raised at our Racing Luncheon that was held in December 2016.

The donation will continue to help fund the RDA work with special needs children in Hong Kong.

Presenting the cheque on behalf of the Carbine Club was Mark Winstanley, Vice President of the CCHK to Benson Wong, Hon Treasurer of The RDA. A special note of thanks to Mark for making the presentation as he is recovering from hip replacement surgery, which will now undoubtedly improve his fast bowling technique. –Danny Zigall, HK Carbiner correspondent

The Carbine Club of ACT State of Origin II Dinner

The Boardroom at Jim Murphy's provided a fantastic backdrop for the Carbine Club of the ACT State of Origin II dinner on Wednesday 21 June.

President Mac Howell welcomed the 44 members present and special guests, Canberra Raiders Head Coach and Carbine Club Member Ricky Stuart and Raiders players Josh Hodgson, Elliot Whitehead and Jack Wighton.

Mac also welcomed and introduced six new members to the club in Rob Evans, Scott Fardy, Damien Murphy, Gavin Pound, Andrew Smith and Andrew Turnbull with each of them presented with their Carbine Club Tie and Pin.

Secretary Paul Walshe provided an engaging interview with Ricky, Josh, Elliot and Jack that provided some light entertainment prior to kick-off of the State Of Origin game.

It was an honour to have four outstanding individuals from the Canberra Raiders attend the function.

Outside of the result a great evening was had by all with the wine flowing late into the night.

The Carbine Club of London

The Carbine Club of London has been busy –

On 28 June the Club held its Lord's Long Room Luncheon with Club member Hugh Taggart managing proceedings as MC for the day. President Peter Jensen made a presentation to cricket great Mike Gatting of a bow tie that had some history as it was Mike's benefit year bow tie. A presentation of a magnum of Bollinger was made to the club's new sporting associate Nick Luck in recognition of his effort in leading the tipsters on the panel at the club's February Cheltenham Gold Cup Festival dinner at the Lutyens Restaurant in Fleet Street.

Mike Gatting, the former England captain and longstanding Middlesex legend delivered a lively lunchtime discourse, followed by Jonathan "Aggers" Agnew who added greatly to the day's entertainment.

On 25 May the Club ventured to Sandown Park and occupied the Gold Cup suite for an evening of class racing where subsequent Ascot Gold Cup winner Big Orange was a popular winner of the Group 3 Henry II Stakes.
