As one of Australian sports greatest rivalries, the Bledisloe Cup promises to showcase some of the best rugby action year after year. Although New Zealand has dominated the series in recent years, the undoubted passion for the contest by both the players as well as the supporters present for a weekend not to be missed by any fans of the game.

To celebrate this epic game, our Rugby Lunch is an event not to be missed.

The Carbine Club of NSW Bledisloe Cup lunch at the Westin on 17 Aug was a huge event in a lot of ways with a sellout to room capacity of 880. Former Wallaby Captain Stephen Moore was the main guest speaker with former All Black Winger Eric Rush as the counterpoint.

The club presented two cheques in support of junior sport at this lunch. The first was presented by club member Gordon Bray to Raelene Castle CEO Rugby Australia for the Australian Rugby Foundation specifically to support some families needing assistance for their sons to represent Australian schoolboys on their forthcoming tour of Scotland and Ireland. The second cheque was presented by club member Amy Hetzel to Bronwyn Smith of Australian Waterpolo to assist the Australian Junior Women's team currently touring Europe. A familiar name in the team list was Matilda Kearns continuing the family tradition of wearing green and gold.

WA News

The Carbine Club of WA has had a busy time recently with the 30th Anniversary Lunch on 22 June and then the Broome Cup Luncheon on 17 August

The annual Broome Cup lunch at the exotic Cable Beach Club with 150 members & guests saw club member Darren McAullay interview racing personalities Fred Kersley and Peter Moody in the usual informative and entertaining “Macca” style.

A highlight of the raceday is the running of the Carbine Club Stakes.

The Annual Carbine Club of NSW Golf Day was played at the picturesque St Michaels Golf Club at Little Bay. This year 18 teams competed in beautiful weather.

As in recent years, the best two stableford scores in each team on each hole determined the team event whilst an individual competition was also contested.

At the conclusion of play whilst finger food was consumed Tony Bouffler from AJB Sports Management entertained us with his years with IMG Sports, thoughts on Jarrod Lyle whom he managed during his career and stories of the US Masters golf tournament. Then we were given some insights into the horse racing industry by leading trainer, Anthony Cummings.

Our thanks go to Robert Travis and everyone at St Michael's Golf Club for hosting the event and ensuring that we had a wonderful day. Thank you to Tournament Directors Geoff Thoroughgood and David Gilbert for co ordinating the day.
